

The family went to the forest. They hung out with a T-Rex. The T-Rex ate the young girl. A unicorn was running on a rainbow and helped the family.

The unicorn flew with the family on a rainbow to home.

A few minutes later, when they were flying, they arrived at an amusement park. They played with the unicorn. It was very happy and funny. A few minutes later, at night, they went to sleep.

Children woke up. Children played again with the unicorn. The unicorn flew home.

The children were very sad but also very happy to be alive.
