

They are women.

The women are talking and washing. They send their stuff. They are walking.

They hang out with little The men are not here.

In this picture I can see a road. They are poor but I think they are happy.

I think it is a very small town. Everybody knows everybody. In this picture

I can see a very old and bad house.

Zhis picture was made by David Octavius Hill.

In this picture I can see a lot of women.

They haven't got anything.

There don't wear many clothes, they have one skirt and one shirt.

This picture is in North street, Fishergate, St. Andrews.

This picture's maker was born in 1802 and died in 1870

Newhaven Fisheries - North Street, Fishergate, St. Andrews

Hill, David Octavius

Museum für Kunst und Gewerbe Hamburg

CC0